HAPPY CHRISTMAS 2018

The Priests of the Parish Fr. Roy Donovan and Fr. Pat Currivan together with the Parish Pastoral Council are delighted to welcome back those who have travelled home for Christmas.

We think of and pray for those who may not get home this Christmas due to distance and expense, ill health and those who work during the Christmas season.

We also remember those who have gone to their Heavenly home this year. Christmas can be a joyful or a difficult season for each person depending on their personal circumstances. Help us to be God's beacon of light and love to shine light onto another's darkness during Christmas.

CAHERCONLISH/CAHERLINE PARISH

CHRISTMAS 2018

Wishing Everyone
a Happy and Holy Christmas and Peaceful New Year

The Parish of Caherconlish/Caherline invites you to the switching on of our Church Christmas Tree lights in Caherconlish Church after the 6.30pm Vigil Mass on Saturday 1st. December.

This year a draw will take place at the 6.30pm Do This In Memory Communion Mass for the honour of switching on the lights. Last year Emily Murnane, Caherline, had the winning ticket and switched on the tree lights. This year the honour will be given to one of the children taking part in the Do This In Memory Programme. Music will be provided by local musicians led by Valerie Walsh and all the children will join in the congregational singing. Please come and join us as we begin our preparations for the season of Christmas.

CLEANING OF CHURCHES.

The Cleaning Ministry is made up of a group of parishioners who give their free time to help keep the Church looking clean and tidy.

We are very grateful for their contribution, but more volunteers are urgently needed. If you could spare an hour or two once a month to help, it would be greatly appreciated. “Even though we’re cleaning, we’re building a closer relationship with Him by being within the Church and being part of the church physically, as well as emotionally.”

The Church cleaning for the month of December takes place in Caherconlish and Caherline Churches on Monday 3rd December, at 8pm.

If you are unable to attend on that night but would be available to help in the future, give your name to any member of the Parish Pastoral Council or Fr. Roy Donovan. Thank you.
