

DO THIS IN MEMORY PROGRAMME 2018/2019

This programme offers us as a parish a way of acknowledging and supporting children, parents, families, and the wider parish community as they prepare throughout this special year towards the celebration of Holy Communion. It compliments and supports the wonderful work of sacramental preparation in the schools.

As a parish community, we gather as God's family at our Masses. By welcoming children and their families as part of this programme the parish community actively expresses the reality of being companions with the children on their journey. Three D.T.I.M. Masses will take place in 2018.three will also take place in 2019, the programme will conclude with a Mass on the feast of Pentecost on Saturday 25th May 2019.

'IS LISTENING'

IN THE MILLENNIUM CENTRE

ON 8TH OCTOBER AT 8PM.

HAVE YOUR SAY!

Archbishop O'Reilly invites you as a parishioner of Caherconlish/Caherline Parish to participate in a process of listening, reflecting and planning for the future of our Church in the Diocese of Cashel and Emly.

All are welcome to gather, listen and share their thoughts on how they regard the church at this time in history and to consider how we might move forward together to make a better church of the people while acknowledging the past wrongs of the Church.

All are welcome to contribute to this process including those who for various reasons have left our church communities.

Upon completion of the Listening Process the data collected will be used to work together as a diocese to lay out a pastoral plan for the coming years.

“ANYONE CAN BE GREAT... BECAUSE ANYONE CAN SERVE”

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

To continue its ministry of reaching out to the community some of our ministries have a great need for new volunteers. Whether you like reading, listening, organising, or have ideas we value your contribution. If you are new to the area becoming involved in your church is a great way to meet new people and use your gifts.

Some of the areas we urgently need help in are:

New readers in Caherline for the 10am Mass. (dates can be arranged to suit you)

Help with the Cleaning of our Churches which takes place once a month.

Collectors at our Masses.

If you would consider volunteering in any area of our church visit our website www.ccppp.ie or drop into the sacristy, contact Fr. Roy Donovan or any member of the PPC. names at the back of our Churches.
