

PARISH NOTES – February 9th 2023

HELLO Caherconlish/ Caherline Parish

6.30pm Saturday Mass in the Millennium Centre Main Hall.

10.30am Sunday Mass in Caherline

FUTURE SCHEDULE OF MASS TIMES: Saturday Caherconlish 6.30pm, Ballybricken 7.30pm, Herbertstown 7.30pm. Sunday Bohermore 9.30am, Caherline 10.30am. Envelopes received at Masses from each parish will be given to that respective parish at the end of each month.

The new schedule challenges each of us to change our habits and thinking. Every parish is facing the same. Work is progressing well in Caherconlish Church.

GET INVOLVED - a few hours every 4-6 weeks! Share your gifts, skills and talents to enhance your community. As the new schedule of Mass times is now in place in our Parish, we would love people to become part of these changes in our faith journey together. If you are interested in joining our existing rotas as a Reader/Eucharistic Minister, Cleaner, helping as Sacristan in Caherline Church you would be most welcome. An introduction evening with training of what is involved will take place on Tuesday 28th February in Caherline Church at 8pm. Come along to find out more on the night, without obligation. You can also contact Phil Martin secretary of Parish Pastoral group (0871363747), Fr. Roy, or any member of the PPC.

Julieann Moran and Father Éamonn Fitzgibbon on behalf of the Irish delegation delivered a brilliant speech during the second working session of the Continental Assembly of the Synod in Prague. “There is a deep longing for a more inclusive and welcoming Church. People wish for this enlarged tent to be experienced in liturgy, language, structures, practices, and decision-making. The co-responsibility of all the baptised must therefore be recognised and practised, to overcome clericalism and to ensure full and equal participation of women in all aspects of Church life and ministry and decision-making”.
