MOTHER'S DAY A very happy Mother's Day to all our Mothers on this week-end.

In MEMORY of my MOTHER Died November 10th, 1945 You will have the road gate open, the front door ajar the kettle boiling and a table set by the window looking out at the sycamores – and your loving heart lying in wait for me coming up among the poplar trees. You'll know my breathing and my walk and it will be a summer evening on those roads lonely with leaves of thought. We will be choked with the grief of things growing, the silence of dark-green air life too rich – the nettles, docks and thistles all answering the prodigal's prayer. You will know I am coming though I send no word for you were lover who could tell a man's thoughts – my thoughts – though I hid them – through you I know Woman and did not fear her spell. Patrick Kavanagh (1904-67)
