

24th April 2025

POPE FRANCIS: Rest in Peace; rise in Glory. The whole world is mourning the death of Pope Francis. Our Abington Church sisters and brothers were praying for Francis throughout his illness and they too mourn him. He was loved by ordinary Catholics who saw in him a compassionate pastor who cared about people, especially the poor, the migrants and the marginalized. His legacy is multi-fold such as his stance on the environment and introducing the Synodal process which creates a new way of being Church. Like Vatican II, he has opened windows that are difficult to close.

SACRED HEART JOURNEY OF LOVE & HOPE: 2025 marks the 350th Anniversary of the Revelations of the Sacred Heart of Jesus to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque in France. One of these Sacred Heart Statues will be travelling through some parishes of our Diocese offering an opportunity for prayer, reflection, and devotion.
