LIMERICK ANNUAL NOVENA in honour of Our Mother of Perpetual Help at the Redemptorist Church, Limerick from Friday June 19 to Saturday June 27, is the largest religious gathering in the Mid West, with more than five thousand people expected to attend each day. 6 ceremonies daily – 7.30am, 10am, 11.30am, 6pm, 7.20pm & 9pm.

This year's novena, entitled Called and Sent: Living Our Baptism Today, invites participants to rediscover the profound meaning of baptism as not just a once-off ceremony, but as a lifelong calling and way of life. The theme draws on the priorities of the Irish Synod, exploring how every Catholic is called — through their baptism — to belong, to serve, and to help build a more welcoming and co-responsible Church.
